

RB Farquhar

case study

Client: Amec Group Ltd

Project: Site accommodation at RAF Kinloss

Client need:

Amec secured the contract for groundworks at RAF Kinloss and needed to establish their site set-up quickly, with the option to expand their site offices as the contract progressed.

Our solution:

RB Farquhar responded promptly to the clients urgent request with the supply, initially, of three site cabins. The site accommodation was later augmented with a further eleven cabins, six of which were linked to form a canteen, and a separate toilet block.

Result:

RB Farquhar met Amec's demanding timescale, fulfilling all their requirements for site accommodation within their original budget.
